

PRESENT HIS COACH

MARIE-JOSEE VIGNOLA

Marie-Josée Vignola is very attentive to horses and her students. She adapts her teaching according to needs and objectives. She teaches riders who aim to pass their riding certificate in western riding, instructor and trainer. "I also do owner/horse coaching. I have developed a training approach that promotes the relationship between the horse and its owner. This approach is based on learning communication, respect and self-confidence." Her favorite discipline is Extreme Cowboy. She has also competed in this discipline and brought students to competitions.

Certified competition coach by Canada Equestre and Cheval Québec, Marie-Josée has been responsible for the development of coaches since 2022 as an evaluator of rider IV certificates, basic training, instructor and competition coach. She is also completing her training to become a Resource Person. She has a heart to provide high level training to future coaches and instructors.

Marie-Josée is co-owner of the Ecuries Caballo located in St-Charles-sur-le-Richelieu. Equi-quality certified stable, the stable offers a range of services such as boarding, western riding lessons, etc.

Marie-Josée will know how to put you at ease quickly in order to make the most of your day.

GOOD LEARNING EVERYONE !
